The Daily Courant.

Wedneſday, December 16. 1702.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Dec. 16.

Naples, Nov. 21.

THE Nephews of the Duke de Moles, Ambaſſador of the laſt King of Spain to the Emperor, who is now in Germany, are confin'd in the Caſtle of Baya, for what cauſe is not yet known. The Prince of Trebiſaccio is ſeiz'd at Caſtelnovo; his Friends make preſſing inſtances that he may be legally tried, and not be proceeded againſt without any form of Law.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Dec. 19.

Lisbon, Nov. 25. The Levies of Foot and Horſe are carried on ſucceſsfully, and the Troops that were before in the Service are order'd towards the Spaniſh Frontiers. There are new Fortifications raiſing on thoſe Frontiers, and the old ones are repairing; all of them will be in a ſtate of Defence againſt next Spring. The Amirante of Caſtile comes pretty often to Court, and has had ſeveral Audiences of the King and the Prince; Moſt of the Courtiers and principal Perſons of Quality have been to Viſit his Excellency. We expect impatiently the arrival of our Braſil Fleet, tho' ſome are of opinion that it cannot well be here till towards the end of next Month.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Dec. 12.

Creutznach, Dec. 6. Yeſterday 2 Regiments of Huſſars march'd through this place towards the Moſelle. The Prince of Hanover has taken up his reſidence here for this Winter. The Forces of the Elector Palatine, the Lunenburghers, and Heſſe-Caſſellers, are drawn nearer to one another, which makes it ſuppos'd that they will yet attack Traerbach, the rather, for that the Heſſians are now within 2 Leagues of it. There are 1200 Men garriſon'd in the Outworks of Rynfeld, and have ſtore of Ammunition and Proviſion of all ſorts: The 500 Imperialiſts that were in thoſe Outworks are gone to joyn the Heſſians. 'Tis ſaid the Prince of Heſſe Rynfeld is inclin'd to make over his Right to that Place and St. Goar, to the Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel.

Frankfort, Dec. 6. The Regiments of Huſſars that lay about Philipsburg, are gone to Keyſerſlauteren, and raiſe Contributions on the Saar and in the Biſhoprick of Metz. The Paſſes round Traerbach are ſo well ſecur'd, that there is no great danger of the Enemy's making Excurſions; within a few days a Party of that Garriſon were ſurpriz'd by ſome Heſſian Dragoons, and moſt of them either kill'd or taken. The Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel is at preſent in Rynfeld, and has given orders for ſtrengthening the Fortifications of that place. Not long ſince his Highneſs was ſo near Traerbach with the Prince of Heſſe Homburg, that the Prince ſhot one of the Enemy's Sentinels.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Dec. 12.

Cologne, Dec. 8. The French are very buſy about repairing their Bridge at Bonn. Several General Officers, Dutch, Pruſſians, and Heſſe-Caſſellers are come to Duſſeldorp. The Governor of Rhinberg is order'd to make Satisfaction for the Damage done by his Garriſon in the County of Meurs.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Dec. 16.

Cologne, Dec. 12. The French Partiſan La Croix went to Bonn late on Friday Night laſt with 250 Horſe, and took away Monſieur Karrig, the Chancellor of Cologne: Some ſay he is gone to Luxemburg, from thence to be conducted to Dinant. Yeſterday a great Council of War of General Officers was held at Duſſeldorp, in which the Elector Palatine urg'd anew the beſieging of Bonn; to day part of the Confederate Forces that lye in the Country of Bergues march'd into the Villages near Bonn, to ſtreigten the Garriſon of the Fort on the Rhine over againſt that City. By a Letter from the Marqueſs d'Allegre to the Count de Tallard, which was intercepted, 'tis diſcover'd that the Garriſon conſiſts of 5029 Men, and that if they ſhould be hard preſs'd, they could not defend the Place long.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Dec. 11.

Amſterdam, Dec. 11. We have ſeen a Letter here, dated on the 19th of May from Mexico, that came with the Fleet from New Spain, which ſays that ſome Portugueſe Ships of the Company of Cacheo were come to Vera Cruz; that ſeveral French Ships were arriv'd there, as if the Trade were perfectly free for them; they pretend indeed to have Letters of Licence to Traffick with the Spaniards, and under colour of thoſe Letters run into all the Ports of New Spain; This Letter adds, that they have ſo fill'd thoſe Parts with European Commodities, that the Spaniſh Merchants ſuffer extreamly in their Trade; and that 'twas fear'd a greater number of them would come thither when the Plate Fleet was gone.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, dated Dec. 8.

The King has taken the Duke of Burgundy into his Council.

On the 4th inſtant a Courier arriv'd from Cadiz, who reports that the Marqueſs de Villadarias has fortified the Coaſts of Andaluſia, and diſpos'd the Militia into a good Poſture of Defence. He brings advice likewiſe of the Arrival of the Ships from Buenos Ayres, of which we expect a Confirmation.

The Levies for recruiting the Army in Italy will amount to 17800 Men, moſt of which are already on their march thither. The other Levies are carried on with Succeſs.

The Count de Monaſterole, Envoy of the Elector of Bavaria is return'd to his Maſter; the King has promis'd to ſend a Reinforcement of 12000 Men to that Elector's Army.

Commiſſions have been given out for raiſing 2 New Regiments of Dragoons: The Province of Normandy Levies 2 Regiments of Infantry, one of which is to be commanded by a Son of Monſieur de Matignon.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 9.
